OFFICIAL YEARBOOK
OF THE STILWELL PUBLIC SCHOOLS
STILWELL, OKLAHOMA
VOLUME XIII NUMBER 1

FOREWORD

This effort by the yearbook staff presents a record of 1964-65 to the student body and faculty of Stilwell High School.

This, our story in pictures, presents the many activities enjoyed by students this year.

REMEMBER - the football and basketball, the games we won and those we lost, homecoming, halftime shows, senior pictures, junior rings, Dogpatch Day, junior-senior banquet and the many, many other activities.

May this yearbook bring happy memories that will not die, but live again and again through the pages of your 1964-1965 INDIAN.

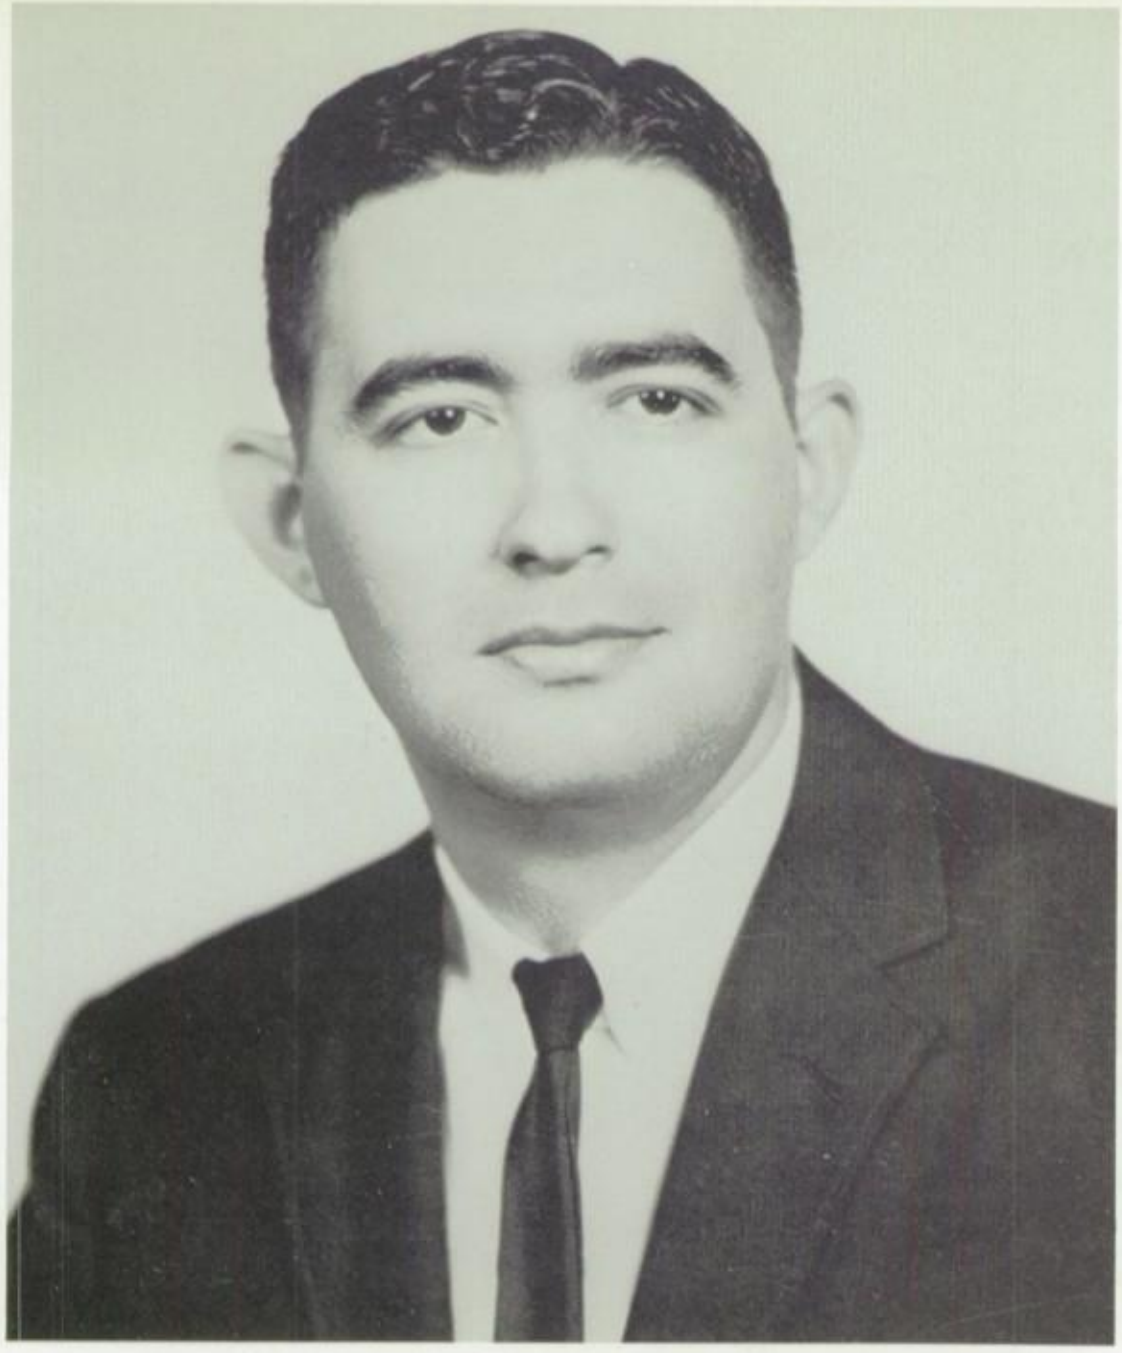
JUNIOR HIGH



NEIL MORTON
STILWELL JUNIOR HIGH
PRINCIPAL

B.S., Northeastern State College
M.A., Northeastern State College
Additional work at the University of Arkansas

Mr. Morton is another local product of the Stilwell school system having graduated with the class of '53. He had behind him seven years of classroom teaching before assuming duties last year as Stilwell's first junior high principal.

Neil and his wife, Patsy, have one daughter, Camille VaTween, who is eight years old.

He is a member of the Oklahoma Education Association and has served as president of the Adair County teachers. Mr. Morton is also a member of the Kiwanis Club and Stilwell Quarterback Club.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET APRIL 16, 1965

THEME "ARABIAN NIGHT"

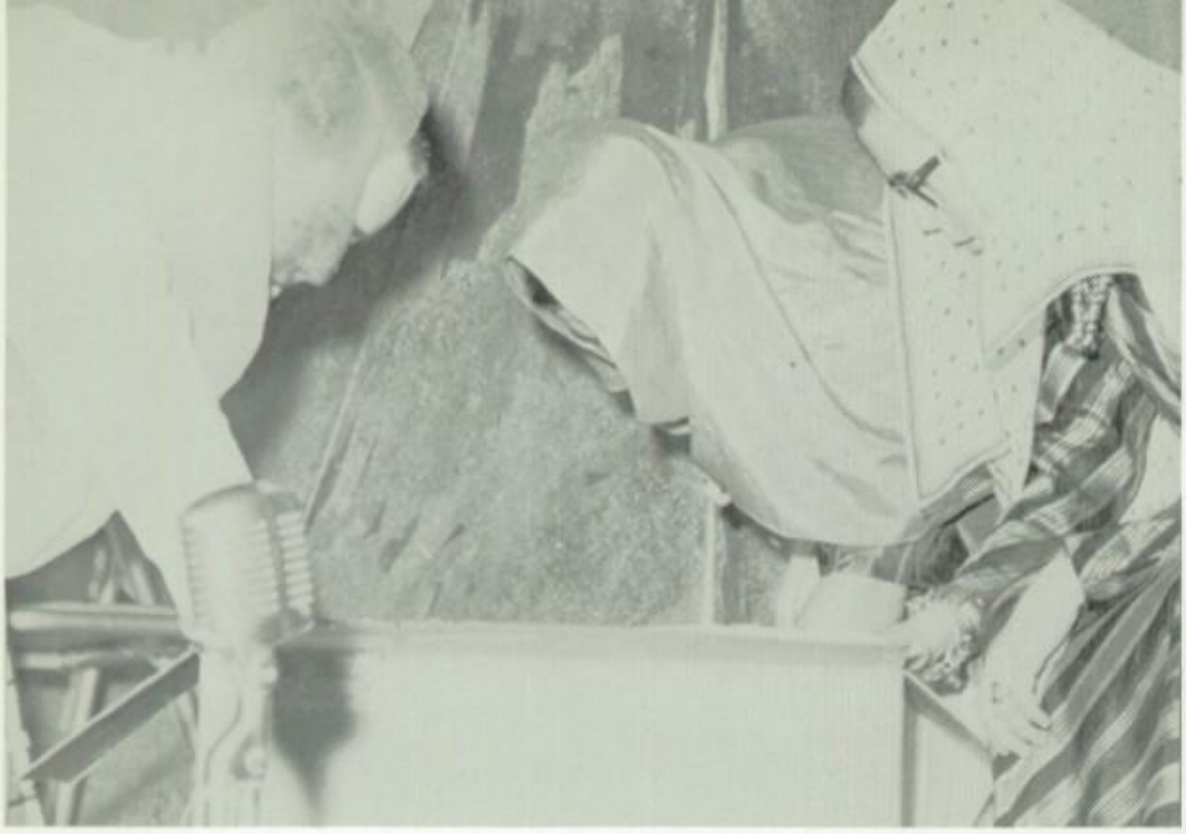
At left, "Genial Genie" Gray and "Scheherazade" Carson with their escorts, Ronald Rhoads and Tommy Todd.

Members of the chorus sang a selection from KISMET and "The Desert Song." Shown are Janet Briley, Linda Mann, Cheryl Rains, Nancy Abbott, Mary Waters, Janet Kester and Sandy Goodall.



Tommy Todd, Larry Worsham and Bill Pemberton inspect box of loot from Sears. At right are shown three harem dressed sophomores, Rita Sisco, Judy Neff and Charlene Workman, who assisted in the serving.

"WE SPEND AN ENCHANTED EVENING"

Mr. "Omar" Gound addresses group on the challenges facing them in a fast moving space age.

In the picture at right are shown the two hard working sponsors, Margaret Rider and Dorothy Largent.

The menu included such fancy foods as: Roast of Water Buffalo, Oasis Potatoes, flowering cacti, tent poles, sesame rolls and olive oil. Genie's surprise and goat's milk.

Donna,

This year was one of our best years and I am really glad that we could enjoy it together. I shall never forget all of the good times, especially the Junior Senior Banquet. I hope that we will always remain the close friends that we have been this year and shall enjoy many happy times in the future. May God always look faithfully upon you.

Love,
Mary K.
